

Caught in the act: Chinese police torture Christians

These photos, provided by the Committee for Investigation on Persecution of Religion in China, are graphic evidence of the torture police inflict on members of Christian groups not approved by the government and on other prisoners of conscience, regardless of the victims' age, gender, or physical condition. The police show no mercy in carrying out their orders to eliminate those targeted by the Jiang regime.

Left: Policeman stands of victim's feet and grinds down on them, causing great pain.

Center & Right: "As I screamed in pain, he used a piece of cloth, which was full of shoe polish and stuffed it into my mouth (for about three hours). Subsequently, he fondled my breasts, at the same time pinching and twisting them hard."

Location: Qingfeng County, Henan Province
Torturer: Lu Dengkun (about 30), Qingfeng Public Security Bureau, Political Security Section

Police hang victim in a position they call "lifting the sedan chair." His wrists, handcuffed tightly, are bleeding. The victim was kept this way for several hours.

Location: Kaifeng Detention Center, Kaifeng County, Henan Province

Torturers: Police from the Xinghuaying Patrol Brigade and Kaifeng County Public Security Department

Policeman handcuffs victim in a position called "Carrying a sword on the back" and pulls the cuffs to cause more pain.

Location: Lingqiu County Detention Center, Datong City, Shanxi Province

Torturers: Liu Di and Zhang Zhongcai (both over 40) and two others from the Lingqiu Public Security Bureau

Policeman uses electric baton to shock an old woman.

Location: Wenshu Township Police Station, Yuzhou City, Henan Province

Torturer: Meng Shanlong (about 40), Youzhou City Public Security Department, Political Security Section